Song Lyrics

Track One- Conscious Cosmos

INTRO- SPOKEN:

Before the world...

Before the stone...

There was awareness

Listening to itself.

Matter did not wake the mind—

Mind dreamed the stars awake.

(Pause)

VERSE 1

Before the mighty empires rose

And ancient tribes the earth did roam

Before philosophy or prose

The cosmos claimed a thinking home

Older than the spark of fire

Older than the laws we draw

Every myth remembers this—

A world that sensed before it saw

PRE-CHORUS

You call it matter—mute and still

Yet something listens...

Something wills...

(Short instrumental breath)

CHORUS

Everything is listening

Every particle aligned

From the dust beneath your footsteps

To the architecture of time

The universe is wide awake

It has never learned to sleep

You are not a voice within it—

You are how it speaks

VERSE 2

Eyes that pierce a hidden range

Ears that read the shape of waves

Forests speak in patient codes

Roots remember ancient days

Stone reflects in silent thought

Crystal dreams in measured light

We mistake the quiet forms

For absence, not another sight

CHORUS (VARIATION)

Everything is listening

Nothing born is blind

Every atom leans toward thought

Every thought bends time
The universe is wide awake
It has never learned to sleep
You are not a voice within it—
You are how it speaks

BRIDGE

What does a star consider
As it births its spinning kin?
Does it carve their oceans deep
Is it love that makes them spin?
Is its light a form of speech
Crossing centuries of dark?
Are we messages in motion
Spark igniting spark?

INSTRUMENTAL SECTION

FINAL VERSE

Like creatures in a cosmic sea
Who never named the tide
We move through mind, pure energy
With consciousness as guide
We are not fragments of the whole
Nor strangers passing through
We are the universe made vocal
Long enough to say “you”

The universe is wide awake
It has never learned to sleep
You are not a voice within it—
You are how it speaks

FINAL CHORUS

Everything is listening
Every form is real
Every star, every stone
Every truth you feel
The universe is wide awake
And now you are as well
Matter was the echo
Consciousness the spell

OUTRO — Spoken Prophecy:

There was never empty space.
Only awareness...
Learning shape.
All is mind.
And mind...
Is listening.

Track Two- Cathedral of Leaves

[Verse 1]

Did you know there's a place you can go

Where the weight falls quiet and low
Where the ache in your chest loosens its hold
And your spirit remembers what it knows
A living web of breath and light
Roots below and stars above
Mother Earth and Father Sun
Passing down their wordless love

[Pre-Chorus]

Every leaf a listening ear
Every trunk a spine of time
If the mind grows still enough
You can hear their breath in mine

[Chorus]

Walk with me where the forest breathes
Where the trees remember me
No demand, no need to prove
Only life sustaining life in view
Walk with me beneath green ties
Where the soul relearns how to rise
In the hush of wood and stream
I remember what I've always been

[Verse 2]

They breathe in what we let fall
And give us air enough for all

Sunlight turning into grain and bark

Fruit and shelter, woods and park

Ego-less and ever kind

Serving Source with open hands

Meditation without thought

Rooted deep where stillness stands

[Pre-Chorus 2]

Carbon turned to flesh and home

Silence singing through the loam

What we call unconscious life

Knows no separation line

[Chorus]

Walk with me where the forest breathes

Where the trees remember me

Every seed a widening mind

Expanding heart through space and time

Walk with me, release control

Let the woodland tune your soul

In their calm I start to see

Their mind and soul remembering me

[Instrumental Interlude]

[Bridge]

They speak in sugar and light

In signals under the ground

They keep the old ones alive
Long after the axe comes down
Countless minds, one living thought
Feeding roots where time is taught

[Verse 3]

Some walk in and never hear
Dragging noise they carry near
Never left the humming screen
Never learned what stillness means
Yet those who sit and breathe and stay
Feel the veil begin to fray
Hermits, mystics, saints and seers
Find the truth between the years

[Chorus]

Walk with me where the forest breathes
Where all life lives in reciprocity
Circle wide and circle true
Everything sustaining you
Walk with me, no crown, no throne
Just a pilgrim made of bone
In the cathedral of the trees
I remember Source in me

[Outro]

May the Earth restore your name

May the Sun remind your flame

May the forest hold your pain

And return you whole again

Track Three- Stars Alive

[verse]

Stars alive, planets breathe

Every atom, preconceived

With a thought, pure energy

A conscious universe, you see

[chorus]

It's in the air, it's in the earth

a single mind, that gives it birth

A cosmic dream, from Source its flow

Everything's alive, we know

[bridge]

The mountain dreams, the river sighs

Beneath the vast and watchful skies

A flower blooms, part of the whole

The big the small, all sharing soul

[outro-short]

Connected all, a cosmic sea

Pure consciousness, that's you and me

Track Four- A Spark Inside

[Verse]

With a spark inside our mind

A vision we will find

Dreams start to come into sight

Shaping futures, burning bright

[Chorus]

We shape our destiny each day

Inspiration leads the way

Imagination sets us free

Inventing what will be

[Bridge]

Intention couples with desire

Reaching ever higher

No limits to what we can do

Making every dream come true

[Chorus]

We shape our destiny each day

Inspiration leads the way

Imagination sets us free

Inventing what will be

[Instrumental]

[Outro Short]

Future's in our hand

We will make our stand
The brotherhood of man
Across the promised land

Track Five- Carry On, Starseed

[Verse 1]

You woke up strange in your own hometown
Seeing star maps in the patterns all around
Every mirror saying
“You don’t belong”
Heart keeps humming that high vibe song

[Pre-Chorus]

You feel the grief of a thousand years
Like a storm collecting behind your tears
But under your ribs
There’s a golden code
Flaring bright every time you’re told

[Chorus]

Carry on
Starseed
Carry on
You were built from distant dawn
When the world feels way too heavy
You’re the reason it goes on

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

You're the quiet

Steady sun

Every time they try to dim you

Let your light shine on everyone (carry on)

[Verse 2]

You see auras in the crowded trains

Synchronicity pointing the way

Other sleepers with the same old ache

Same soft fire they're scared to wake

[Pre-Chorus]

You're here to stitch every shattered part

To sneak in hope like a work of art

Each kind word is a hard shell cracked

Letting love pour in and without lack

[Chorus]

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

You were built from distant dawn

When the world feels way too heavy

You're the reason it goes on

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

You're the quiet

Steady sun

Every time they try to dim you

Let your light shine on everyone (oh, carry on)

[Bridge]

They'll call you crazy

They'll call you lost

They don't see you counting every cost

But there's a signal in your spine that says

"Keep going

Keep glowing

Lift your head"

You're not alone in this heavy night

There are thousands waking to this sight

Every breath you take in faith sincere

Helps a sleeping world draw you near

[Chorus]

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

You were built from distant dawn

When the world feels way too heavy

You're the reason it goes on

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

You're the quiet

Steady sun

Every time they try to break you

Know the battle will be won

Carry on

Starseed

Carry on

Track Six- Energy, Frequency & Vibration

[Verse 1]

Time is a circle that we dream inside

To feel like we belong somewhere

And maybe there's a reason for this life

And we keep it all

We don't let it go

Even when we know

When we're gettin' old

It's not true at all

We could leave the walls

[Chorus]

So if you want to find the secrets of the Universe

Think in terms of energy

Frequency and vibration

[Verse 2]

Space is a vessel that we build inside

To make sure we belong somewhere

And maybe there's a reason for this life

And we keep it all

We don't let it go

Even when we know

When we're gettin' old

It's not true at all

We could leave the walls

[Chorus]

So if you want to find the secrets of the Universe

Think in terms of energy

Frequency and vibration

So if you want to find the secrets of the Universe

Think in terms of energy

Frequency and vibration

[Verse 3]

Time and space are free creations of the human mind

Time and space are free creations of the human mind

Time and space are free creations of the human mind

Time and space are free creations of the human mind

Time and space are free creations of the human mind

Track Seven- Walk Gently (Through The World)

[VERSE 1]

Morning light across the ground

Breathing gold into the trees

Every shadow settles down

Like it knows the sound of me

Yesterday is on my skin

Like a language I once knew

But the horizon draws me in

With something old

And something new

[PRE-CHORUS]

Hold still—

Feel the rhythm start

In the quiet pulse

Of the heart

[CHORUS]

May the sun bring fire to your veins

New strength rising with the day

May the moon sing you whole again

When the light has slipped away
May the rain take every worry
Let it fall, let it run free
May you walk gently through the world
And know its beauty

[VERSE 2]

Clouds roll in like distant drums
Time bends low against the sky
Every breath a vow becomes
Every step a question why
Wind lays hands upon my face
Teaching bones how not to break
Every scar a sacred place
Every loss a chance to wake

[PRE-CHORUS 2]

Listen close—
You will hear
The voice that's always
Been right here

[CHORUS]

May the sun bring fire to your veins
New strength rising with the day
May the moon sing you whole again
When the light has slipped away

May the rain take every worry

Let it fall, let it run free

May you walk gently through the world

And know its beauty

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[BRIDGE]

We are dust and breath and thunder

Borrowed light and passing flame

Every soul a quiet wonder

Every life a sacred name

No road ahead

No sky above

No waves without the sea

But every step

No matter how hard

Still bends toward what we're meant to be

[BREAKDOWN]

When the night feels endless

And the ground won't hold your feet

Remember—you are held

By everything you cannot see

[FINAL CHORUS]

May the sun bring fire to your veins

New strength rising with the day

May the moon sing you whole again

When the light has slipped away

May the rain wash every worry

From the corners of your mind

May the breeze blow life into you

Leave the broken years behind

[OUTRO – SPOKEN BENEDICTION]

You are made of breath and distance

Of fire borrowed from the sun

And silence learned from the night

The earth knows your footsteps

The sky remembers your face

When the weight is too heavy

Give it to the rain

When the road is unclear

Give it to the wind

Do not rush

Do not harden

Do not turn away

Walk gently through the world

And the world will open itself to you
